This guide is intended to help you get started with measuring asteroid lightcurves. The subject of photometry in general is involved. Thu, 10 Jan 2019 21:25:00 GMT A Guide to Minor Planet Photometry - This is a list of gravitationally rounded objects of the Solar System, which are objects that have a rounded, ellipsoidal shape due to the forces of their own gravity (hydrostatic equilibrium). Their sizes range from dwarf planets and moons to the planets and the Sun. This list does not include any small Solar System bodies, but it does include a sample of planetary-mass objects whose shape has ... List of gravitationally rounded objects of the Solar ... - Eta Carinae (Î Carinae, abbreviated to Î Car), formerly known as Eta Argus, is a stellar system containing at least two stars with a combined luminosity greater than five million times that of the Sun, located around 7,500 light-years (2,300 parsecs) distant in the constellation Carina. Previously a

4th-magnitude star, it brightened in 1837 to become brighter than Rigel marking the start of ... Eta Carinae - Wikipedia -
